

County of Fairfax, Virginia

To protect and enrich the quality of life for the people, neighborhoods and diverse communities of Fairfax County

PROVIDENCE PERSPECTIVE

A Providence District History Project

The Providence District Supervisor's office is hosting a history project entitled Providence Perspective, which will take a look at the rich past of Providence District through pictures and words.

Supervisor Smyth welcomes residents to submit written and oral recollections, historical materials/documents and photographs. Providence Perspective will be published as a keepsake for residents and for the enjoyment of future generations interested in our local history. It will also be available in digital format.

To submit materials or to join the project committee, please contact Supervisor Smyth's office at 703-560-6946, TTY 711, or via email to provdist@fairfaxcounty.gov.

Do you like going after a good story?

Do you know of families who have lived in Providence District for generations?

Do you enjoy telling stories?

Do you have a stash of family pictures stored away in a box?

Do you enjoy seeking out and talking to people?

We want you for our project!

Do you know the history of places like Hunter House? We want you to share your stories and memories!

Fairfax County is committed to nondiscrimination on the basis of disability in all county programs, services and activities. Reasonable accommodations will be provided upon request. For more information, call Supervisor Smyth's office at 703-560-6946, TTY 711.

Providence Perspective will be available in print and digital format in 2007